

TOPIC WEB

YEAR GROUP: 4

TERM: Spring

ESSENTIAL QUESTION: How much truth is there in Greek Myths?

REAL IMPACT

We will create a film to show to parents and the local community based on our learning about Greek Myths

Literacy:

Narrative- a myth and legend story based on the myth 'Theseus and the Minotaur'.

Non-fiction-a discussion text based on the two Greek cities of Sparta and Athens. A non-chronological report on the Ancient Olympics.

Posters and leaflets to advertise the film premier.

Poetry-Free verse poetry based on 'Wind poems'

Performance poems

MAIN OUTCOME

Create a Lego motion picture based on a class Greek myth to premier to the public.

ART and DT

Design a Greek pot based on their everyday life. Glaze and fire their pots.

Design and make their own Greek flat breads.

Numeracy:

Multiply and divide by 9, 9 times-table and division facts, multiply and divide by 7, 7 times-table and division facts. Recognise and use factor pairs. Multiply two digit and three digit numbers by one digit numbers. Fractions -equivalents, add and subtract with the same denominator, count up and down in hundredths. Decimals-decimal equivalents of tenths and hundredths, convert between different units of measurement.

P.E.: Gymnastic skills-balancing, rolling jumping, handstands and cartwheels. Create sequences.

Dance-as a class produce a contemporary dance based on the Ancient Greek Olympics.

Geography and History

Order major Ancient Greek events on a time line. The spread of the Greek Empire. Gods and Goddesses. The Greek writing system. Greek vases. The ancient Greek Olympics.

PSHE/C:

Dreams and Goals.

What is it like to be healthy?

Project Launch

A visit from a Greek Explorer.

Science

Solids, liquids and gases. Reading thermometers, changing states, evaporation and condensation and the water cycle. Digestive system, animal diets, looking after your teeth. Producers, predators and prey.

R.E.

To understand how celebrating Passover and keeping Kashrut (food laws) help Jews show God they value their special relationship with him.